Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D-
(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials, or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(h) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that,

subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

TO: PHYSICIAN FOR TERRI L. SNYDER

FROM: YOUNG CONAWAY STARGATT & TAYLOR, LLP

RE: Medical Information and Records

By this release, signed by your patient Terri L. Snyder ("Patient"), you are authorized and directed to discuss medical information with or to otherwise permit the examination and copying or reproduction of the documents listed below in any manner requested or authorized by Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, specifically, Sheldon N. Sandler, Esq. and/or Margaret M. DiBianca, Esquire.

- a. Medical records of Patient, including patient record cards, chart notes, x-ray readings and reports, laboratory records and reports, all tests of any type or character and reports thereof, statement of charges, and any and all records pertaining to medical care, history, condition, treatment, diagnosis, prognosis, etiology through the present;
- b. Hospital records of Patient, including x-ray readings and reports, laboratory records and reports, all tests of any type or character and reports thereof, chart notes, statements of charges, and any and all records pertaining to hospitalization, history, condition, treatment, diagnosis, prognosis, etiology or expense through the present; and
- c. Other records relating to medical treatment or examination of Patient, including records pertaining to insurance benefits or third-party payor benefits through the present.
- d. You are further authorized and directed to discuss with Sheldon N. Sandler, Esq. and/or Margaret M. DiBianca, Esquire and to provide oral and written reports to Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, in care of Sheldon N. Sandler, Esq. and/or Margaret M. DiBianca, Esquire, or its delegate, as requested by them on any of the foregoing relevant matters.

Patient makes this consent upon the premise that all disclosures of alcohol and drug abuse records, if any, made pursuant to this authorization shall be accompanied by the following notice:

NOTE: This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by Federal Law. Federal Regulation (42 CFR Part 2) prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by such regulations. A general authorization for release of the information is NOT sufficient for this purpose.

THIS CONSENT DOES NOT INCLUDE DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ABOUT PATIENT'S STATUS AS HIV NEGATIVE OR POSITIVE.

Patient understands that this consent is subject to revocation at any time, upon written notification by Patient to your treating facility, except to the extent that action has been taken in reliance thereon.

Patient hereby acknowledges that he has read, is familiar with, and fully understands the terms and conditions of this consent. Photocopies of this signed release shall be treated as executed originals.
